Larry Taylor, Chairman
Leesburg Historic Preservation Board
City of Leesburg
P. O. Box 490630
Leesburg, FL 34749-0630

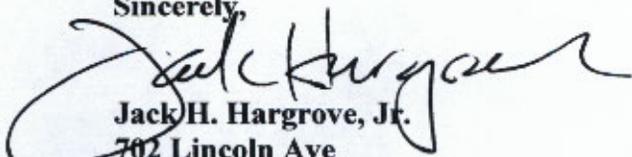

Dear Mr. Taylor:

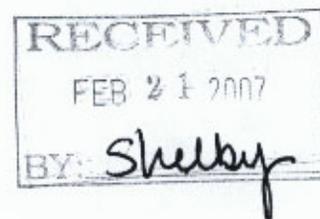

I regretfully submit my resignation from the Historic Preservation Board, effective at the end of my current term in March 2007. Serving on the Board since its inception has meant a great deal to me; and I am proud of all that we have accomplished through the years, particularly our part in getting the Historic District established.

I would like to thank you for your fine leadership, as well as expressing my appreciation for the excellent support from Bill Wiley and the other members of the City staff.

In the future, I look forward to reading about many more accomplishments of the Historic Preservation Board.

Sincerely,

Jack H. Hargrove, Jr.

Bill,

I meant to get this note to you earlier but was on vacation last week. As I told you the other day...it is getting very difficult for me to make it to the Historic Preservation meetings. I think it is time for me to turn my spot over to another interested citizen. I really enjoyed being on the committee. You and your staff have done a wonderful job helping the City of Leesburg preserve its past.

Sincerely,

Jim Hill
