Re: Sole Source Letter:

This letter is being written to confirm that QEI is the sole designer, manufacturer and distributor of all QEI products. QEI uses no other means to distribute or sell products in the USA.

All intellectual property associated with the QEI Capacitor Controller product line, which includes the operating system and QUICS protocol, are strictly the property of QEI, Inc.

If there are any further questions pertaining to this subject matter, they can be directed to QEI Sales for further clarification.

Sincerely,

QEI, Inc.
