Leesburg Welcomes New Building Official

LEESBURG, FL - The City of Leesburg welcomes Ann Kinsey as its newly appointed Building Official. She started her employment with Leesburg on March 1.

Kinsey most recently served as Plans Examiner for Lake County Building Services. She is licensed by the State of Florida Department of Business and Professional Regulation as a Building Code Administrator as well as holding numerous plans examination and inspection licenses.

“Ann brings a wealth of experience and knowledge to our community. Her background and skills, both in and out of the building field, will allow her to make a big impact on how the City deals with contractors and residents as well as addressing our goals in the Building Division. I am excited to have Ann on board and know she will make a great addition to our team,” said City Manager Al Minner.

Along with her field experience, Kinsey is certified to teach several building inspection classes. She is also a published author.

Leesburg is a progressive city of more than 21,000 residents in northwest Lake County. The city government serves twice as many people with its electric, gas, water and wastewater public utilities. Leesburg is also a central hub for commerce, attracting 50,000 people to work each weekday. For more information, visit www.leesburgflorida.gov.
